

Smoking Disparities in Kansas

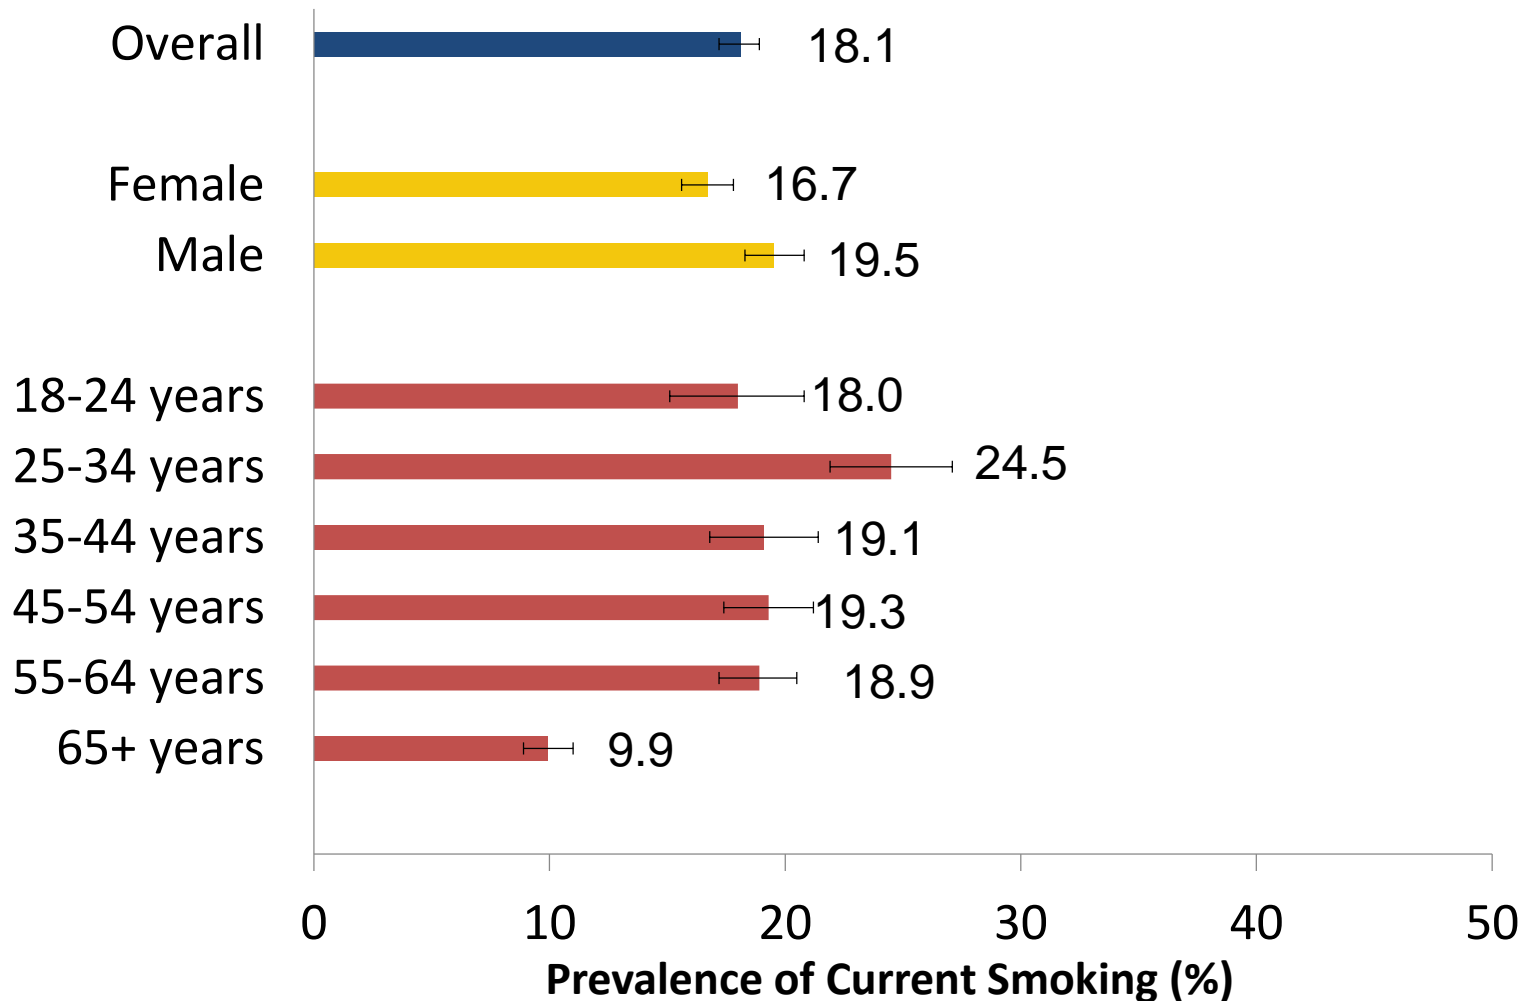

Belle Federman, ScD
Advanced Epidemiologist
Tobacco Use Prevention Program
KDHE Bureau of Health Promotion

Community Health Promotion Summit
January 29, 2016

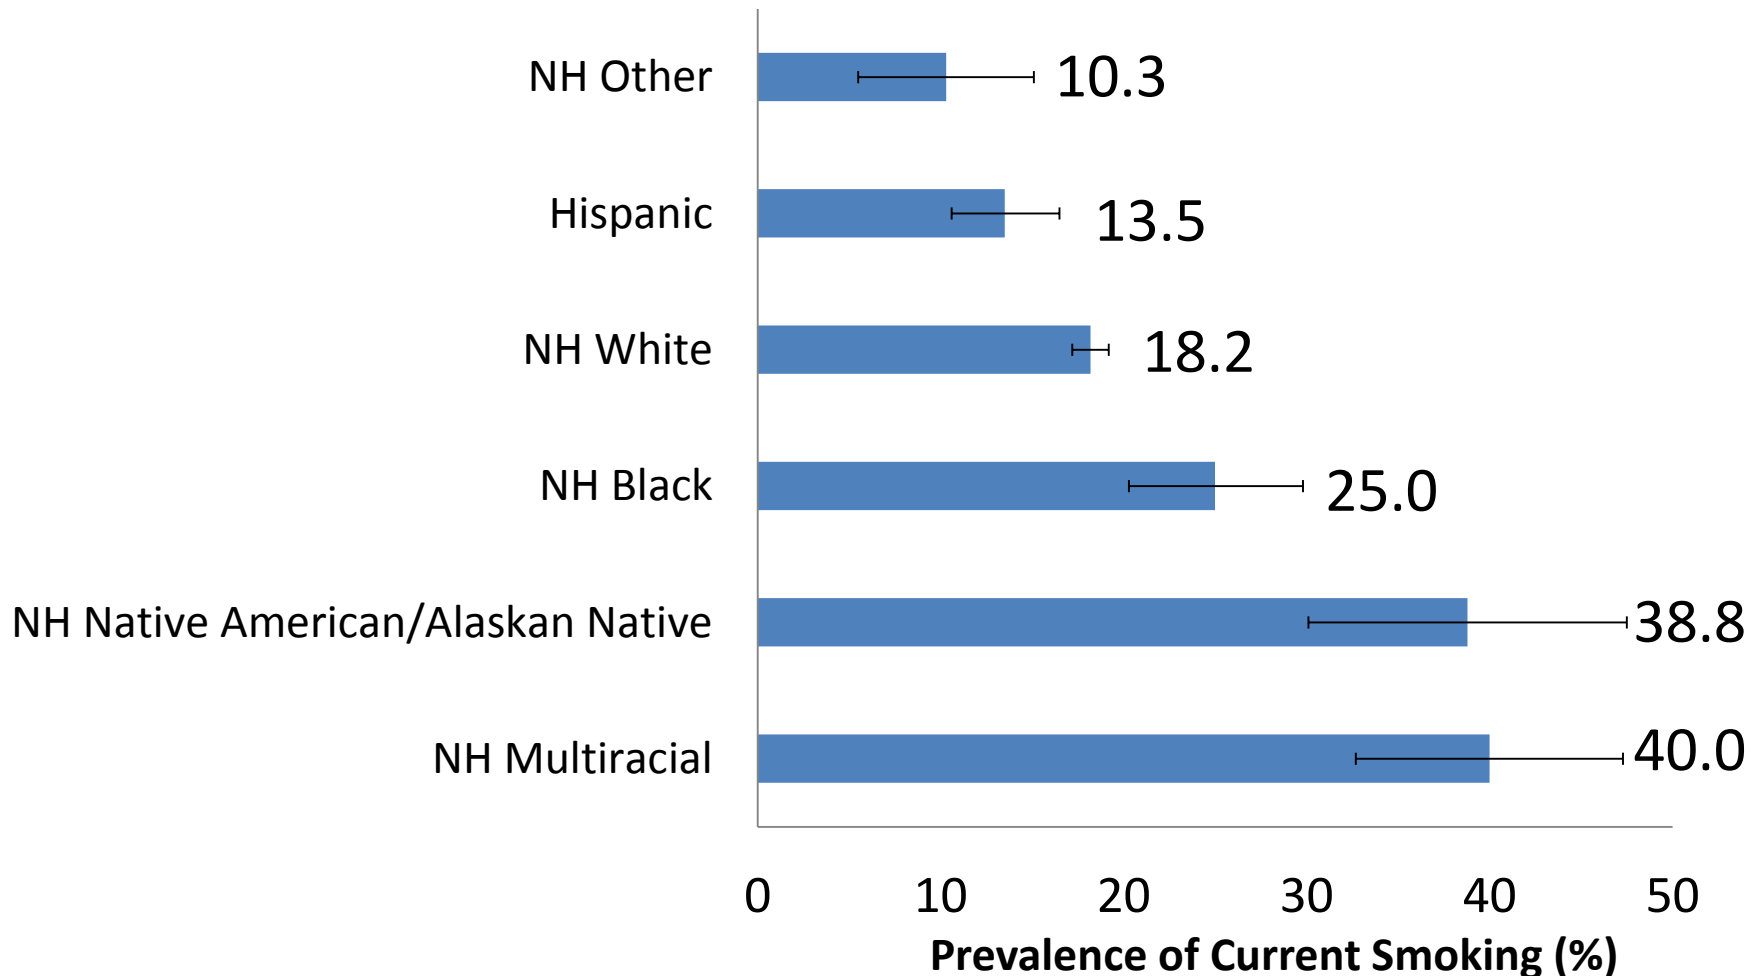

Our Mission: To protect and improve the health and environment of all Kansans.

The prevalence of smoking is higher in males and adults ages 25 to 34 years, 2014 Kansas
BRFSS

Source: 2014 Kansas Behavioral Risk Factor Behavior System, Bureau of Health Promotion, KDHE

Age-adjusted smoking prevalence is higher among African American, Native American/Alaskan Native and multiracial adults, 2014 Kansas BRFSS

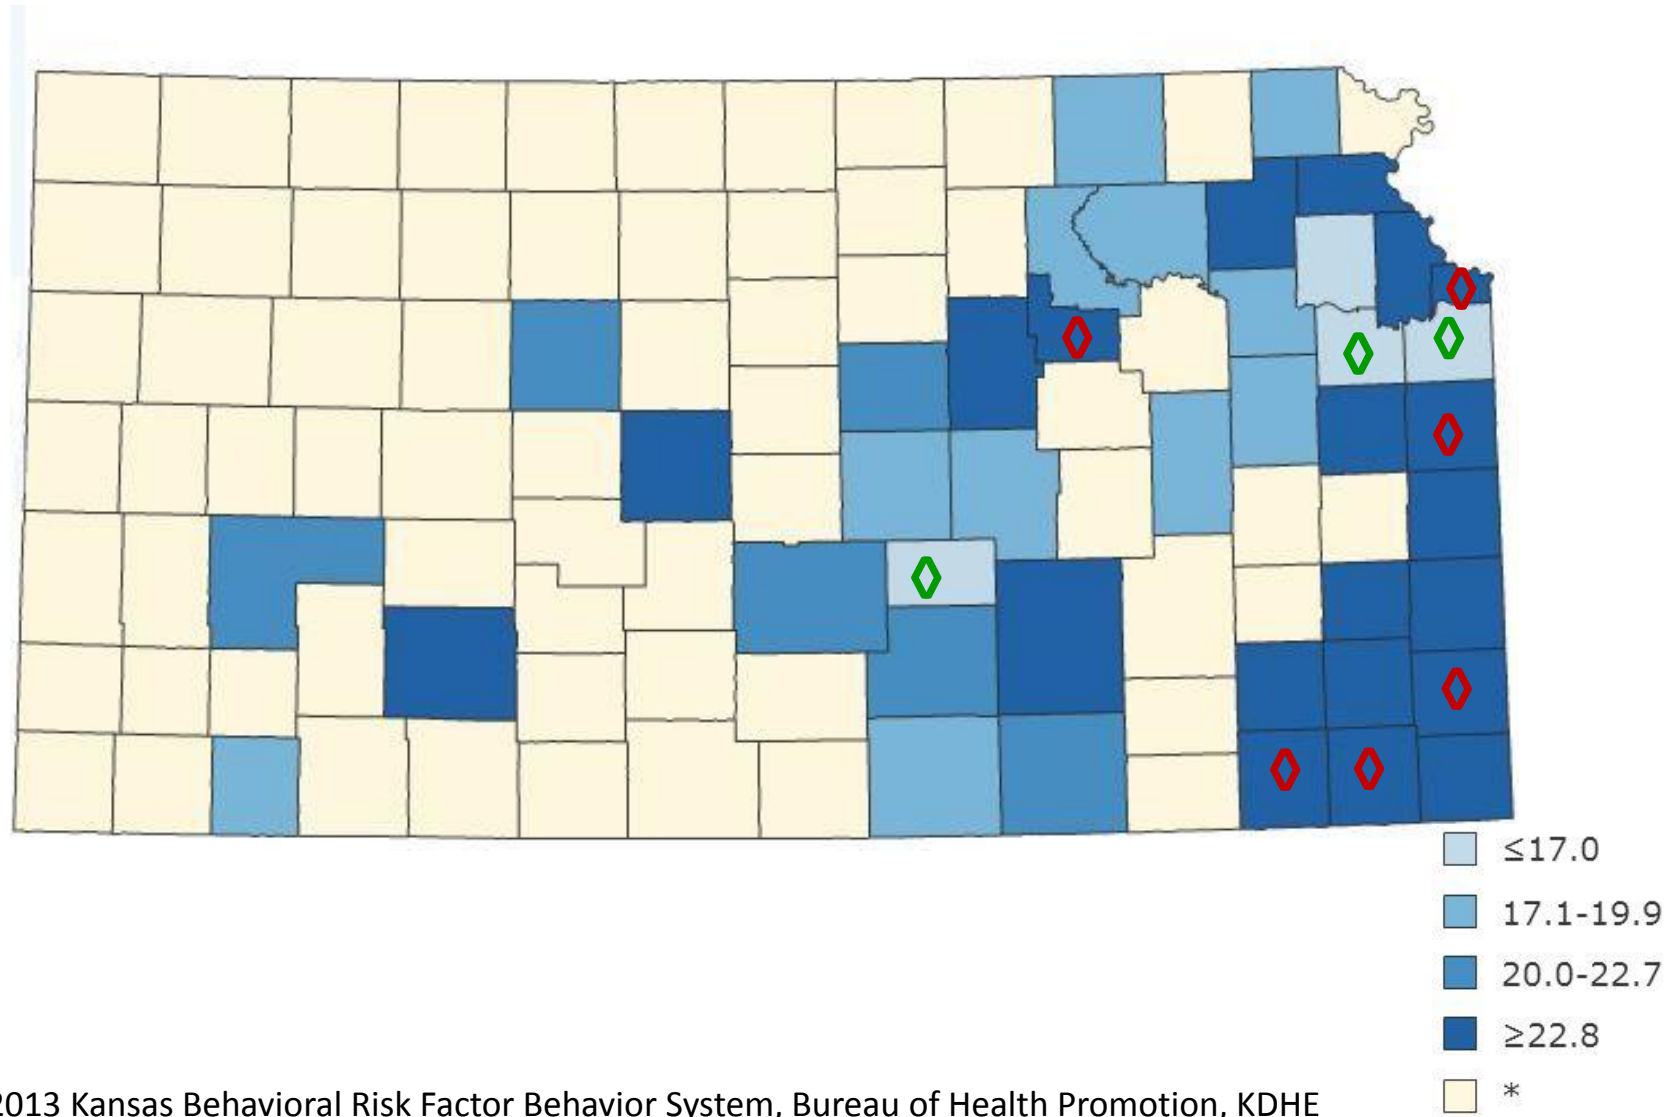

Source: 2014 Kansas Behavioral Risk Factor Behavior System, Bureau of Health Promotion, KDHE

Note: Prevalence estimates for race and ethnicity are age-adjusted to the U.S. 2000 standard population

Current smoking does not vary by population density, 2014 Kansas BRFSS

Current smoking does vary by geographic location, 2013 Kansas BRFSS

Smoking prevalence is higher among adults with lower socio-economic status, 2014 Kansas BRFSS

Smoking disparities also observed by disability status, sexual orientation and mental health, 2014 Kansas BRFSS

Prevalence of smoking increases as the number of disparity-related characteristics increases, 2014 Kansas BRFSS

Source: 2014 Kansas Behavioral Risk Factor Behavior System, Bureau of Health Promotion, KDHE

Contact

Belle Federman, ScD

bfederman@kdheks.gov

(785) 296-1152

Our Mission: To protect and improve the health and environment of all Kansans.

